Introduction

Mobilization. The hidden secret of missions! Behind every missionary, whether short or long term, is a mobilizer. The mobilizer may have been a book, a dynamic speaker, the example and inspiration of a missionary of old, the scrapbook of a friend who'd gone or a mother who had faithfully prayed. Think about your own life. The fact that you are holding this little book gives testimony to the long chain of events that led you to be where you are. Your chain is much different than mine, but we were led through a process of being awakened to the grand pursuit of the world-wide worship of God! What could be a grander purpose than to "serve Him shoulder to shoulder" in accomplishing His desire and the deserved reward of His sufferings (Zeph. 3:9)? God is in the business of rallying laborers to work His fields and praise Him for allowing our humble participation! Because the overwhelming evidence of Scripture points to God's ultimate end: the presence of "every tribe, tongue and nation, standing before the throne and in front of the Lamb," I'm convinced that there is no select elitist group of people chosen for the task. It is the responsibility of all Christians to take an active part in this Harvest! That is why I want to call all Christians to be World Christians and all World Christians to be Mobilizers!

The Traveling Team has given the same challenge to thousands of students one to one as they have traveled to campuses across the nation. The creation of these 10 Modules is the direct result of our observations and study of the current state of mobilization among students. We have seen, in general, a heart and desire to mobilize, but an inability to move forward due to lack of knowledge. The American Heritage College Dictionary defines a module as "a standard or unit of measurement". The idea behind these modules is for the reader to be able to approach mobilization with a clear idea of how it should take place. They are not meant to be read straight through, but rather, each chapter is written in a stand-alone fashion, to be read as needed. It is our sincerest hope that these modules serve to raise up laborers from the campus to the world.
